

Welcome to Ensemble for These (Summer) Times, E4TT's summertime listening series of biweekly, topical programs intended to bring you a bit of light, joy, thoughtfulness, and hopefully a bit of sanity via relevant new music this summer...

# 1: July 14: Roots & Recordings

With the ensemble's third CD, "Once/Memory/Night: Paul Celan" released on June 30, our first listening theme will be Roots & Recordings, focusing on the new recording and the group's recording path to it.

Listening series info

- ⊕ Each listening program will focus on a different theme.
- ⊕ The series will be biweekly; you'll need a new link to access each program, which we'll send via the newsletter and will expire with the next program.
- ⊕ Some will be paired with interviews with an E4TT collaborator.
- ⊕ Anticipated dates are July 14, July 28, August 11, and August 25.

Thank you from all of us at E4TT for joining us this summer, and hope you enjoy. As always, stay safe and be well!

Program Notes

In dieser Zeit \(CD: "Surviving: Women's Words"\)

For this program, we'll begin at the beginning, with our first project and the impetus for the group's founding, a song cycle by David Garner for Nanette McGuinness to poetry by Mascha Kaléko (1907-1975), featured in our first recording (Silver Medal in the 2016 Global Music Awards). When we rebranded, her poem "In dieser Zeit" inspired our new name. It is as biting relevant now as it was when she wrote it.

Önarckép; Duo \(CD: "The Hungarians: From Rózsa to Justus"\)

Performing music to Kaléko's poetry on tour in Hungary for the Daniel Pearl World Music Days led to our second recording of music by Hungarian composers lost or exiled during the Holocaust (Gold Medal in the 2018 Global Music Awards).

CD: "Once/Memory/Night: Paul Celan" \(selected tracks\)

With our latest release, we've come full circle to our roots and inspiration from Kaléko. Although Celan's and Kaléko's voices differ—moving from the societal and impersonal to the surreal and personal (Celan), their poetry deals with many of the same issues. Further, Celan was born in the same Ukrainian/Romanian border town (Czernowitz, Bukovina—whose Jewish population was decimated during the Holocaust) as another poet on our first CD, Rose Ausländer.

Texts and Translations (All translations by the ensemble)

In dieser Zeit (Mascha Kaléko)

Wir haben keine andre Zeit als diese,
Die uns betrügt mit halbgefüllter Schale.
Wir müssen trinken, denn zum zweiten Male
Füllt sie sich nicht. Vor unserm Paradiese

In These Times

We have no time other than this,
Which fools us with its half-full glass.
We must drink, for it won't be filled
A second time. Before our paradise,

Droht schon das Schwert, für das wir
auserlesen
Verlorner Söhne landvertriebene Erben.
Wir wurden alt, bevor wir jung gewesen,
Und unser Leben ist ein Nochnichtsterben.

The sword for which we were chosen already threatens,
We, the lost sons of disinherited heirs.
We grew old before we were ever young
And our lives are a „not-yet-death.“

Wir kamen einst mit Kindes Gläubigkeit
In ein vom Sturm verwüstetes Jahrhundert.
Einst hofften wir. Nun schweigt's in uns verwundert.
Ihr aber könnt nur helfen dem, der schreit.

At one time we came, with childlike belief,
Into this storm-ravaged century.
Once we hoped. Now we are silent,
Bewildered,
Though only he who screams can be helped.

Verstohlen träumen wir von Wald und
Wiese

Furtively we dream of meadows and woods

Und dem uns zugeworfnen Brocken Glück...
Kein Morgen bringt das Heute uns zurück,
Wir haben kein andre Zeit als diese.

And of a scrap of luck thrown towards us...
No tomorrow will bring today back:
We have no time other than this.

Önarckép (Banyai Frigyes)

Kacagás és elfojtott könnyek
Alkotják a lelkeim eredőjét
E felett a bánat úgy terül szét,
Mint felhője óriás mezőnek.

Self Portrait

Chatter and repressed tears
Make up the root of my soul.
Above this, sorrow spreads
Much like a cloud over a giant meadow.

Elfojtott sóhajok halk versek
Jönnek lágyan az ajkamra néha.
Ilyenkor dallal borongós, méla
Szavakkal szórombe a kertet.

Held-back sighs, quiet poems
Come softly to my lips sometimes.
At such times, with a song,
I sow with garden with gloomy, dark words.

De reggel faradtan ébredek;
Künn sűrűn hintve a tájt hull a hó:
Szememre fehér álmot hullató és
Söprik a tetőn. Vad szelek.

But in the morning, I wake up tired
Outside, the snow dusts the land thickly:
In my eyes, dreams of white dropped
And swept the roof. Wild winds!

Pihenni havas hajnalon mit ér

What good is it to rest on a snowy dawn,

Ha szívemet lassan belepi dér?

If my heart slowly becomes frosted over?

Die Gauklertrommel (Paul Celan)

von meinem Herzgroschen laut.

Die Sprossen der Leiter, über die Odysseus, mein Affe, nach Ithaka
klettert,
rue de Longchamp, eine Stunde
nach dem verschütteten Wein:

tu das zum Bild,
das uns heimwürfelt in
den Becher, in dem ich bei dir lieg, unausspielbar.

The juggler's drum,

Loud from my heart-penny.

The rungs of the ladder, upon which Odysseus, my ape, clambers towards
Ithaca,
Rue de Longchamp, one hour
After the spilled wine:

Make that the image that rolls us homeward in the
Dice-cup, in which I lie next to you, Unplayable.

Espenbaum, dein Laub blickt weiss ins
Dunkel.

Meiner Mutter Haar ward nimmer weiss.
Löwenzahn, so grün ist die Ukraine.
Meine blonde Mutter kam nicht heim.

Aspen tree, your leaves peer white into the dark.

My mother's hair was never white.
Dandelion, Ukraine is so green.
My blond mother never came home.

Regenwolke, säumst du an den Brunnen?
Meine leise Mutter weint für alle.

Rain cloud, do you linger over the well?
My silent mother cries for all.

Runder Stern, du schlingst die goldne
Schleife.

Round stars, you tie a golden ribbon.

Meiner Mutter Herz ward wund von Blei.
Eichne Tür, wer hob dich aus den Angeln?

My mother's heart was scarred by lead.
Oak door, who lifted you from your hinges?

Meine sanfte Mutter kann nicht kommen.

My gentle mother cannot come back.
